

CMAIN

1172 MURPHY AVE #237

SAN JOSE, CA 95131

CMAIN is a NPO with 501(c)3 which helps all people suffering the disasters We will ensure all donation go to those who really need help by all means and no one will get any kind of salary from CMAIN.

We build up CMAIN, only because nowadays, there are more and more highly educated Chinese immigrate to US. They are generally kind and have sympathy. They choose to live in US for a better life and they do want to contribute their effort to local communities. However due to the different background culture, most of them are not familiar with the rules and benefits of making charity donations in US.

United States also has lots of nature disasters caused by, for example, fire, flooding, hurricane and tornados. These nature disasters cause great loss. CMAIN would like to build the bridge for Chinese immigrants to contribute their effort for the US society.

Please find our General Mission Policy, which hopefully will answer your concerns.

Huaqiang Wu

Chairman of CMAIN

Answer to other Concerns

1.

Please provide a complete, detailed description of each of your educational training, programs, seminars and/or workshops. Include information pertaining to qualifications and compensation of instructors and speakers, topics covered, copies of educational literature used, a schedule of representative charges and fees, how and to whom the programs are publicized, who may attend, etc.

We would like to encourage our guest speakers to not take a pay since we are NPO. However in the event a speaker has to be paid, a Form 1099 will be issued to the speaker.

Q: how and to whom the programs are publicized

The programs are published by (a) CMAIN web site <http://www.cmain.org>, (b) Press conference, (c) Community Public Bulletin Board System posting (i.e. <http://www.mitbbs.com>, <http://www.wenxuecity.com>), and (d) news paper ads.

Q: who may attend

All our public activities are open to the general public including US Citizens and Chinese Immigrants, and Chinese visitors.
